Those summer jobs proving difficult to find this year

The employment line is forming for summer youth jobs, but it may not move as fast as last year.

"This year, we'll probably serve 15 to 20 percent fewer young people than last year," said David Stocklin of the Madison County Employment and Training Department.

Federal funding for the Summer Youth Work Experience Program is expected to be less than last year, although the amounts have not been announced, officials said. The program is offered under the federal Job Training Partnership Act.

Stocklin said about 425 to 450 teenagers and young adults will go to work in this year's program, compared with about 500 last summer.

The program, which provides basic skills training and career counseling, places economically disadvantaged young people in jobs with public and nonprofit employers at $4.50 per hour.

Youths 14 through 21 are eligible, but those 14 and 15 participate only in the career exploration program.

For more information, contact the Employment and Training Department office at 150 Hillsboro Ave., Edwardsville, 622-8843.

In another program called Hire the Future, Illinois Department of Employment Security offices in Alton and Edwardsville have more students who want to work than jobs.

Officials are urging more employers to sign on.

Hire the Future is open to any student who has excellent reading and mathematics skills.

"This program involves good, dependable kids with good grades and good attendance records," said Ray Bailey, manager of the Edwardsville office.

"We sent 200 to 300 notices to employers (for Hire the Future) and we had 10 to 15 replies," said Rose Reed, employment services representative at the Alton office. "I've got possibly 10 jobs for 35 kids."

Summer jobs aren't limited to special programs. The state Job Service offices usually have numerous job listings of interest to young people, Bailey said.

"Kids need to get in to one of our offices and we'll be able to help," he said. "We usually have a lot of summer jobs, but many of them go wanting."

Girl's murderer gets 90-year prison sentence

Michael Strader has been sentenced to 90 years in prison for the murder of his former girlfriend and attempted murder of her boyfriend after a night of drinking.

Strader, 21, was sentenced Friday by Madison County Associate Judge J. Lawrence Keshner to 60 years in prison for shooting to death former Granite City resident Donnell Awalt, 17, in her back yard Aug. 2, 1992.

He received an additional 30 years for the attempted murder of Matthew Pike, who was seeing Awalt at the time. The sentences are to run consecutively, but, with good behavior, Strader could be free in 45 years.

"We're glad it's over," Awalt's grandmother, Maxine Simmons of Duplo, said after the hearing. "It's been very hard on all of us, and now that it's over we can pray and try to get back to something like normal, though we'll never have Donnell back."

Strader, who showed little emotion during the trial in January, made a subdued plea for forgiveness Friday and said he would take up a trade in prison.

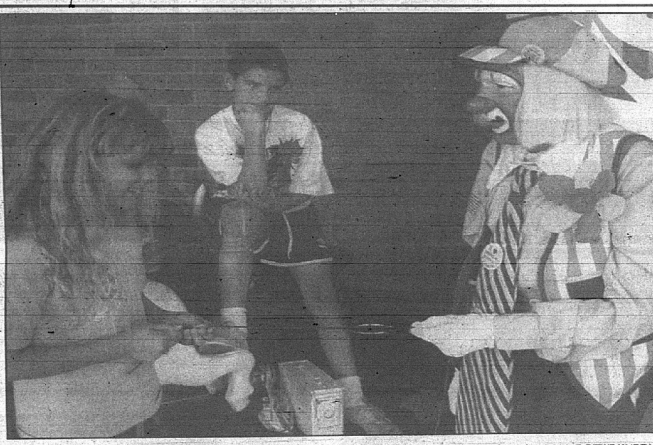

"I'm sorry for all the pain and agony I caused everybody involved, and I hope someday you can forgive me," Strader said, looking at Awalt's mother, Clara Awalt, as he spoke.

Members of Strader's family cried quietly after the courtroom was cleared. They declined to talk to a reporter.

Awalt and Strader had ended an 18-month relationship two months before the shootings.

Prosecutor Rich Rybak called on the judge to sentence Strader to natural life in prison without chance of parole, in addition to two 30-year sentences to run consecutively.

Shriners are coming — tonight

The annual Ainad Temple Shrine Circus Parade will proceed through the streets of Granite City starting at 7:30 tonight (Wednesday).

About 100 units are scheduled, including clowns, marching bands, floats, motorcycles and traditional crowd favorites, the international award-winning Ainad Temple and Bugle Corps, Ainad Brass Band and Ainad Oriental Band.

The parade steps off downtown, on Niedringhaus Avenue near Edison Avenue. Marchers will follow Niedringhaus to Madison Avenue and go north on Madison Avenue to 29th Street, where they will turn left, proceed to State Street, and conclude near the Granite City High School parking lot.

"Everyone should enjoy the parade," said parade Chairman Ed Morton.

The purpose of the parade is to promote the annual Shrine Circus, to be held Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Gateway International Raceway on Highway 203 in Madison.

Tickets for the circus are $6 in advance and $8 at the gate. Each ticket admits one adult or two children.

Circus tickets may also be purchased from any Shriner or at any Metro East Schnucks store.

Proceeds from the circus are used to support Ainad Shrine Temple in East St. Louis, one of 191 Shrine temples in North America that help fund 19 orthopedic hospitals and three burn centers offering free care to children.

Officer bypassed on ticket

A Pontoon Beach police officer who issued a traffic ticket says nobody ever consulted him about having the charge dismissed.

The ticket was later dismissed at the request of a high-ranking employee of the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

"I was not approached by anybody, including Don Bricker (the sheriff's employee), Harry Briggs, or anyone on the (Pontoon Beach) department, to dismiss the ticket," said Lt. Dan McKinney.

The ticket was issued by McKinney in January to Robert Rellie for failing to wear a seat belt. It was recently dismissed reportedly at the hands of Bricker, chief security officer at the Madison County Courthouse.

The ticket, which was discovered in Bricker's office wastebasket, was dismissed by Madison County Associate Judge George Filcott.

Madison County Regional School Superintendent Harry Briggs' name was handwritten on the ticket when it was recovered.

Briggs, who acknowledged he is a friend of the Rellie family, said he was not involved in the ticket's dismissal.

Madison County State's Attorney Bill Haine was angry at Bricker's apparent interference in traffic court affairs and has prohibited his office employees from dealing with Bricker on any traffic issues — including Sheriff's Department cases.

Meanwhile, McKinney was perplexed as to why the ticket was dismissed, especially at the request of an officer from a different department.

"It is pretty much standard procedure that, if something is (See TICKET, Page 6A)

Lady Warriors 4th in state

The Granite City girls soccer team's state title hopes came to an end against Naperville Central on Saturday, but the Lady Warriors did not come home empty handed.

Granite City placed fourth at state for the second time in four years after losing 3-1 to Palatine in the third-place game Saturday.

The Lady Warriors advanced to the state semifinals with Friday night's sudden-death overtime victory over Libertyville.

Granite City defeated Libertyville 3-2 in the sudden-death round of penalty kicks, and advanced to Saturday's semifinal game against Naperville Central, which defeated the Lady Warriors 3-0 before losing to St. Charles in the state title game.

Granite City finished the season at Conant High School in Hoffman Estates with an 18-2 record.

Southwest Steel Supply adds new line

Southwest Steel Supply Co. is investing in the future.

The company, located on McCasland Drive in Madison, dedicated a new precision blanking line at an open house last week.

The new blanking line is the centerpiece of a $2.5 million to $3 million project, said John Sugrue, sales manager for Southwest Steel.

He said the new line, purchased from Red Bud Industries, will annually produce in excess of 25,000 tons of precision blanks at competitive costs, creating new markets for Southwest Steel products.

The new blanking line will also mean additional employees for Southwest Steel, Sugrue said.

Madison Mayor John Bellico was on hand for the dedication last week.

Drug testing confusing City policies vary by department

By Bob Slat Staff writer

What would happen if a Granite City firefighter tested positive for illegal drug use?

That hypothetical question was posed to firefighters last week.

There is currently no drug testing policy in place for firefighters, for teamsters and laborers at the street department, or for operating engineers at the wastewater treatment plant.

But while street workers and employees of the wastewater treatment plant may be hired, disciplined or terminated by the mayor, discipline of firefighters falls under special state laws.

Granite City firefighters have been working without a contract since April 30 of last year, a span of more than 13 months. As public safety employees, firefighters are prohibited by law from striking, but they may demand binding arbitration when contract negotiations fail.

An arbitrator is currently weighing separate contract proposals submitted by the city and firefighters.

Wage increases and drug testing are two issues of dispute, union and city officials said.

The city's proposal includes a policy in which firefighters could be tested for illegal substances and/or alcohol by random selection as well as based on reasonable suspicion. The firefighters' proposal would allow testing based on reasonable suspicion only, not at random.

Firefighter Union President Ed Hagnauer said last week that the firefighters did have a policy in place now had the city accepted a proposal last year that includes a provision for testing based on reasonable suspicion.

"We don't have a problem with drug testing. But random drug testing, we believe, is a violation of our rights," Hagnauer said.

Some aldermen have said that testing based on reasonable suspicion alone may not be effective, since a department head might hesitate to demand a test for a fellow worker and friend.

County property taxes tilted toward Wood River

Granite City Township 2nd in revenues

Industry, business owners and residents of Wood River Township generate more than one-fifth of the total property taxes paid in Madison County.

Factories, businesses, homes and farms in Wood River Township are expected to pump $29.16 million into county coffers this year.

"They've got the oil refineries there, that's the main reason," Madison County Supervisor of Assessments Robert Harris said.

Shell (Oil Co.) paid $7,750,000 by themselves. They've got a $90 million assessment," Harris added, referring to the estimated value of Shell-owned property in Wood River Township.

The township's $29.16 million contribution to the county tax base amounts to 21 percent of the $140.6 million expected to be collected countywide this year, according to county figures.

Granite City Township placed second, with $18.7 million in property tax revenues, followed closely by Edwardsville, with $17.895 million, county figures

Fourth place went to Collinsville Township, which is expected to generate $15.97 million. Alton Township placed fifth in the township tax-generating ranking, with $13.1 million in property tax revenues, followed by Godfrey Township, which is expected to generate $8.462 million this year. Alton and Godfrey townships are coterminous, which means their township and municipal boundaries are identical.

New Douglas Township occupied the bottom slot, with an estimated $190,500 in property tax revenues.

A large chunk of Wood River Township's tax revenue comes from a string of refineries and processing plants on the western edge of the township, including Shell, Amoco Petroleum Additives Co. and Clark Refining & Marketing Inc., officials said.

In addition, the Olin Corp. plants in East Alton generate millions more in tax revenues, Harris said.

Another factor appears to be the large number of people living in incorporated and unincorporated Wood River Township, where the population outnumbers both Alton and Granite City.

Wood River Township has 37,960 residents, compared with 33,964 in Alton and 32,862 in Granite City.

"You bet we're No. 1," said County Board member Tony Bosich, a Democrat from Wood River.

"The funny thing is we provide more tax money for the county than anyone else, but we've got the smallest number of county employees. That's not right."

That should change because we're keeping this county afloat," Bosich said, referring to the large concentration of county employees hailing from Granite City and other areas of southern Madison County.

St. Mary's opening medical arts center

By Mike Vixla
Staff writer

In 1990, the diagnosis for St. Mary's Hospital was bleak as the hospital faced a $6.3 million operating loss.

But today, the East St. Louis hospital is financially in the black and a large expansion will occur in July with the opening of the Windsor Medical Arts Center.

"It will be a community wide celebration. This is something that the community can be very proud of," said Scott Steiner, marketing and planning director for the hospital.

The grand opening for the medical center is scheduled for July 23. The $3.1 million project will provide an additional 32,000 square feet of medical care space.

"There is a great deal of excitement about the new building and what it will mean to East St. Louis," said Francis Martin, co-owner of Fox Med-Equip Services which recently signed on to locate in the new building. "We're glad to be a part of it. We're also excited about bringing a new service to the people of East St. Louis."

In addition to Fox Med-Equip Services, two other businesses, Medicate Pharmacy and Old Time Optical Shoppe have committed to locating at the new medical center.

"It's exciting for all of us who believe in the future of this community to see first-rate companies decide to make an investment here," said Richard Mark, president/chief executive officer at St. Mary's.

Steiner said about 20 physicians will have offices in the new center which is presently about 70 percent leased.

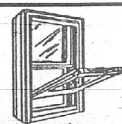

In the past two years, St. Mary's has added a variety of new programs and health services for local residents.

The hospital has opened a Renal Dialysis Center, Orthopedics and Dermatology Center and initiated a program to aid victims of crime and to prevent child abuse.

The hospital also opened an after hours, prime-time clinic for non-emergency care.

Recent new equipment at St. Mary's includes CT scanners, mammography units and new sonograms.

About 40 permanent jobs will be created with the opening.

Testing

Fire Chief Keith Talley said last week that he would not hesitate to demand testing for an employee if he had a reasonable suspicion that the worker was impaired on the job.

But, Talley said, the policy at the fire stations — or lack of one — is confusing.

"Asked hypothetically what would happen if an employee's test showed positive for illegal substances, Talley hesitated.

"It depends on who you talk to," Talley said.

"If you would have asked me a couple of days ago, I would have given you a different answer. But today I would say in that hypothetical situation I would refer the matter to the city attorney staff, the mayor's office and the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners," Talley said last week.

Alderman Dan Partney, a former member of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, said that the lack of a drug testing policy for firefighters is confusing.

"In that hypothetical situation, the problem is that there is no policy," Partney said.

"But I can tell you in my opinion, in that hypothetical situation, the guy should be (fired)," Partney said.

Partney said that the law is very clear about disciplining firefighters.

By state law, the fire chief may suspend an employee without pay for a period of up to five duty days, Partney said. Any more stringent discipline must be meted out by the commissioners after charges are brought — presumably by the fire chief.

By law, the mayor cannot discipline firefighters or police officers, Partney said. But, he pointed out, the mayor does appoint the fire chief and the three-member police and fire board.

Assistant City Attorney Ed Fitzhenry said that Partney's interpretation is close to correct, but that in fact the fire chief may impose more harsh discipline, if warranted.

"As I understand it, the chief may impose a suspension of any period — five days, 30 days — or even discharge an employee," Fitzhenry said.

"But for suspensions of more than five duty days, the aggrieved firefighter has an opportunity to appeal that to the board of fire and police commissioners," Fitzhenry said.

Fitzhenry agreed with Partney that the mayor has no real legal standing when it comes to disciplining a police officer or a fireman.

Mayor Ron Selph was unavailable for comment.

Currently, the city has a drug testing policy in effect for sworn police officers and teamsters working in the sanitation department.

These two groups have agreed contractually to a drug testing policy that includes provisions for random selection for testing as well as testing based on reasonable suspicion by a department head.

The city also has a policy in place for its clerical workers, members of American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) Local 3445.

Selph unilaterally implemented a random drug testing policy for the clerical employees — and his appointed workers — after contract negotiations with the white-collar union on the issue were declared at an impasse.

AFSCME has since asked for a federal court injunction barring implementation of the random testing policy.

Under the terms of the disputed policy, workers have a 90-day period of "amnesty" in which they may turn themselves in for treatment.

After that period, any employee whose test result is positive for illegal substances may be subject to disciplinary action, including termination.

Fitzhenry said that drug testing is a bargaining issue in all current city contract negotiations except those with operating engineers — at the wastewater treatment plant, where it has not been put on the bargaining table.

College honors Leo Konzen

Granite City attorney Leo Konzen was taught by his father, that education is the best way to enjoy life.

"You can enjoy life more if you have the education to understand more in life," Konzen said.

Konzen was honored by Belleville Area College with the 1994 special recognition award for his service to BAC over the last two decades.

The award was announced at a spring BAC Board of Trustees meeting.

Konzen and BAC faculty and staff members who won BAC recognition awards were honored at BAC's May 15 commencement ceremony.

"His commitment to education is why Konzen has worked in many different capacities over the last two decades to help the college continue to grow," a spokesman said.

To start with, he was instrumental in bringing Granite City into BAC Community College District 522, and then worked to establish the Granite City Campus 10 years ago.

In the 1970s, when state legislators recommended that each municipality belong to a community college district, Konzen was instrumental with a committee of Granite City residents to study the possibility of starting a new district, or joining an existing one.

When the state later mandated affiliation with a community college district, he was appointed by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and his local school district to serve as chairman of the committee to study this idea further. The citizens' committee recommended that Granite City join District 522.

In 1980, Konzen served on the Blue Ribbon Advisory Committee to review and make recommendations to improve the college's accreditation, curriculum and financial stability.

"As a friend and supporter of the college, Konzen also helped negotiate BAC's purchase of Granite City High School North from Community School District 9 to establish the Granite City Campus of BAC.

His service to the campus did not stop there. Konzen was appointed in 1986 to serve on the BAC Board of Trustees, replacing Trustee Patricia Bartsokas, who resigned from the position.

Konzen said he has been happy to serve the community and serve the college.

"Having a community college is a benefit to any individual and to any community," Konzen said.

"The benefits to the community for outweighing the work it took to establish the college in this area."

The BAC spokesman continued, "If all of his work in the community were not enough evidence of his commitment to education, his family is further evidence.

"He and Pat, his wife of 37 years, raised their three sons to pursue their educational goals. Today, Kevin is a physician, Brian practices law in the same firm with his father, and Michael is an architect with a firm in St. Louis."

Physicians locating in Metro East

The Southern Illinois University School of Medicine in Springfield has contributed 16 practicing physicians to the Metro East, according to a survey of graduates.

The survey on career status of members in the school's first 15 classes found that 41 percent, or 333, are practicing in Illinois.

That number includes 13 in Madison County, and one each in Calhoun, Jersey and Macoupin counties, said school spokeswoman Nancy Zimmers.

SIU graduates are practicing medicine in Maryville, Alton, and Edwardsville.

The survey found that 72 percent of the 1,163 graduates are now in practice, with 26 percent still in residency or fellowship training. About 2 percent were no longer in medicine or unaccounted for.

SIU continues to be a leader in the country in the percentage of its graduates who have entered primary care specialties, officials said. About 53 percent of the graduates of the school's first 15 classes are in primary care, more than any other medical school in the nation.

Giving vegetable gardens Proper Care by the experts at

FRANK'S NURSERY & CRAFTS

Where Beautiful Things Begin

Vegetables planted in the garden, like anything else, require care. They don't have to be pampered, but if you want to savor the delicacies to the max, there's some work to do.

A newly planted garden needs water every day to keep the soil evenly moist. Once the seeds sprout, this can be gradually reduced. Once established, vegetable gardens need about an inch of water a week. A rain gauge can be used to determine the amount of rainfall. If there's not enough rain you can supplement it. When a sprinkler is used, water in the morning to reduce water loss due to evaporation. If there's too much rain... we don't really need to discuss excess rain!

Vegetables also need to eat, and at regular intervals. Many plant foods are available including water-soluble powders like Frank's Plant Food and dry granular formulations such as Frank's Garden Food. Vegetables perform best when fed either a balanced fertilizer such as Frank's All-Purpose Garden Food (12-12-12), or one that's high in phosphorus like Frank's Garden Food (5-10-5). Specially formulated vegetable foods such as Frank's Vegetable & Tomato Food are also available. Always follow the label directions when applying plant food. Refer to our free booklet, "Gardening Basics," for more information.

Now we must talk about the bad guys. The weeds. They'll not only ruin the look of your vegetable garden, they'll rob them of vital nutrients. So they must be kept at bay. One of the easiest ways is to block them out with mulch. This also keeps the ground cool and moist, resulting in better root growth. Several types of mulch are available, including plastic, cloth, and organic mulches.

Before laying down any mulch, you must first water the soil. Spread the sheets of plastic or cloth over the planting area, and then cut holes where the plants are to be placed. If the mulch isn't penetrable, make a large enough hole so water can be applied at the base of the plant. Peat moss is an example of organic mulch and it provides the added advantage of improving soil quality as it decomposes. Grass clippings can also be used, but not if they've recently been subjected to any type of weed control.

The Birds and the Bees
Melons, pumpkins, cucumbers and squash form separate male and female flowers on the same plant. Pollen from the male flower is transferred to the female flower by bees and other insects. Male flowers eventually drop off, leaving the females to develop fruit. Female flowers are easy to identify. They have a swelling at their base that resembles a miniature fruit. Poor pollination or environmental problems can cause female flowers to fall off prematurely. Also, fruit won't form if insects are discouraged from doing their job by cold weather (less than 50°F) or by rain. Once weather clears, this situation should correct itself. If poor conditions persist, hand-pollinate female flowers by rubbing a cotton swab on the male flower to first gather the yellow, dust-like pollen and then on the newly-opened female flower.

Harvesting
Half the fun of gardening (maybe even more than that!) is enjoying the fruits of your labor. Knowing how and when to harvest will ensure peak flavor, and that's what vegetable gardens are all about, anyway. Many can be harvested at various sizes, some can't. We'll list some common vegetables and their harvest times in an upcoming Journal.

Coffeehouse operator gets support — from Collinsville

By Martin Richter
Staff writer

A businessman who stormed out of a recent Granite City Planning Commission meeting because he couldn't get the hours he wanted for his new business will be opening it next week anyway — in Collinsville.

David Lindsay of Granite City will open his business — an "alternative nightclub" that will serve a variety of coffee drinks and feature live acoustic music — on June 15 at 206 N. Bluff. It will be located in a two-story building next to China Palace restaurant.

While coffee, cappuccino and espresso will be the stars, don't call it a coffeehouse. You won't find any beatniks, berets or drugs there, Lindsay said.

"I really, truly hate that term, 'coffeehouse,'" Lindsay said. "It has some really negative connotations."

The business will offer a retail section downstairs, with close to 40 varieties of imported coffee beans for sale by the pound.

The second floor will be an "alternative" club where customers can enjoy espresso coffee drinks, gourmet coffees, hot chocolate, Italian sodas and "a dessert menu to die for," Lindsay said.

There also will be acoustic entertainment five nights a week; Lindsay plans an open-mike night on Tuesdays to give local musicians a chance to be heard.

Lindsay pitched his business as a place where people can go to socialize, without having to be around alcohol.

"It's really a unique concept," Lindsay said. "It's relatively new to the St. Louis area, but it's extremely popular on both the east and west coasts."

Lindsay, who spent 10 years traveling the world as a professional high diver, said he first encountered this type of alternative club in Vienna, Austria. He said he visited Seattle in 1992, where there are almost as many cappuccino and espresso bars as grunge bands.

He plans to call the business "Dave's Dive," in honor of his diving career, he said.

He said he expects to have a formal city inspection this week of his building, which he is leasing and has been remodeling for three weeks. And it appears he will get the hours he wants here, since he doesn't need a liquor license.

"Basically I was told I could operate 24 hours here if I wanted to," Lindsay said.

He said the retail part of the business will open at 1 p.m., with the club upstairs open from 8:30 p.m. to midnight on weeknights, and 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Friday and Saturday. He may expand the hours depending on the response, he said.

Lucco argued Strader was not eligible for natural life in prison because he hadn't planned the killing in advance.

Donna Weeks of Worden, who said she has known Strader since he was five, testified Friday that Strader had been driving up and down the road in front of Pike's house for several weeks before the shootings. Weeks lives across the street from Pike.

Three days before the shootings, Weeks said she leaned in Strader's car window to talk to him and saw a rifle butt.

Lucco noted that Strader's blood-alcohol level after the shootings was 0.23 percent, more than twice the legal definition of intoxication. Lucco also said Awallt slapped Strader and taunted him several times before he shot her.

Lucco said the injuries to Pike were not severe enough to justify consecutive sentences under state sentencing statutes.

Pike was shot in the neck, groin and shoulder with a .22-caliber rifle, but a doctor who treated Pike in the emergency room testified at the trial that the wounds were superficial.

Keshner disagreed, saying the wounds qualified as severe.

"Your actions were cowardly," Keshner told Strader. "They were not one bit macho."

Lucco said he would appeal the sentences.

"We wanted natural life but we'll take 90 years," Madison County State's Attorney William Haine said after the sentencing. "Basically, he's paying with most of his life for the life he took away from Donnell and tried to take away from Matthew Pike."

Heart Association offers memorials

Southern Madison County residents can keep more than memories of family or friends alive when they use American Heart Association memorials.

"Think of bypass surgery, pacemakers, CPR courses and blood pressure medication and you're talking about advances made possible in part by Memorial contributions to the American Heart Association," said Betty Emert, head of AHA's Memorials in Southern Madison County.

"So, through Memorial contributions, the life that has just ended continues," she said.

The American Heart Association sends a Memorial sympathy card to the bereaved on behalf of each contributor. The amount of the contribution is not disclosed to the card recipient.

For more information on Memorials, contact Betty Emert, 215 Country Club View, Edwardsville, Ill. 62025 or call 656-4149 or contact your local American Heart Association at 1-800-AHA USA.

A nonprofit health organization funded mainly by private donations, the AHA spends more than $22 million each year, on scientific research, public and professional education and community programs.

Tax bill envelopes stuffed — with timely information

By Scott Wuerz
Staff writer

Madison County Treasurer John Shimkus said Thursday residents should not be alarmed when they receive tax bill envelopes that are fuller than in past years.

Shimkus said the envelopes are stuffed with inserts that are intended to make computing tax payments easier for county residents.

A total of 121,065 bills were mailed on Wednesday, Shimkus said, and putting flyers in the envelope with the bill is the best way to make sure everyone gets the information they contain.

"It does us no good to put on programs to help the public do their taxes if no one knows about them," Shimkus said. "As a former teacher I try to do everything I can to educate residents on how to make tax time easier."

Shimkus said information contained in the flyers includes explanations about exemptions taxpayers may be eligible for, but are unaware of, treasurer's office hours and program listings of when a video about tax preparation will be shown on local cable systems.

He said many taxpayers are unaware of the fact that Madison County offers a monthly payment program and that the Treasurer's Office is open on Saturdays during tax season.

"People don't mind paying their taxes as much if they know they're getting a fair deal," Shimkus said.

He said the first installment of tax bills is due July 10, and residents should call his office at 692-6290 if they do not receive a bill soon.

No impact

Illinois casinos prospering despite new competition

So far, it's the more the merrier for the Alton Belle Casino as Missouri starts limited casino gambling.

That's the early appraisal of Steve Norton, chief operating officer of Argosy Gaming Co., owner of the Alton Belle.

Although casinos opened May 27 on the Admiral on the St. Louis riverfront and in St. Charles, they did not appear to cut into strong Memorial Day weekend crowds, Norton said last week.

"We've had good crowds. It hasn't appeared to impact us," Norton said. Argosy does not release specific figures on daily attendance and revenues. The Illinois Gaming Board issues that information monthly, with the report for May expected this week.

Craig Travers, general manager of the Casino Queen in East St. Louis, also said his boat saw no losses because of competition across the river.

Norton said, "It's an indication the St. Louis market is much larger than either the Belle or the Casino Queen would be able to saturate."

He said Argosy intends to bring the original Alton Belle back into service in mid-June as a second floating casino to handle overflow crowds on weekends and cruises for private parties. The boat is being prepared to meet Gaming Board requirements, Norton said.

It's difficult to predict what impact the increased competition may have in the metro area because the Missouri casinos are "just starting up" and holiday weekends are different than other times.

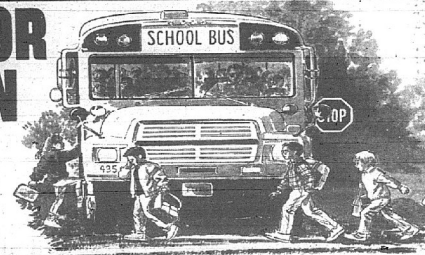

Illinois Gaming Board Legislative Director Jim Nelson speculated it would take at least 30 days to gauge the impact of the Missouri casinos on the Alton and East St. Louis boats.

St. Charles have video poker and blackjack but are barred from offering slot machines. Unlike Illinois, there is also a $900 per day loss limit in Missouri.

Casino St. Charles and the Admiral had a combined total attendance of 51,295 for the first three days they were open, according to the Missouri Gaming Commission.

Hospital unit names Mother of Year winner

St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Extend-Care Rehabilitation Unit (ECRU) celebrated Mother's Day a little early on May 7 but with a lot of spirit.

"We gave a Mother of the Year award and had a staff talent show to entertain the patients and their visitors," said Karen Gauen, activity coordinator for the unit.

Seven staff members sang, performed a vaudeville act and gave Scripture readings. They were Gauen, Sandy Hillmer, Melissa Reeves, Dave Sheppard, Carl McGallister, Jim Matheny and Judy Busarich.

Sandy Hillmer brought her children, Gauen said. "Her sons, Jason and Clayton, lip-synched to Elvis Presley and her daughter, Emily, sang a Wynonna Judd song."

The Mother of the Year award was given to Anna Bailey of Granite City. She was also presented with flowers donated by Floral Original, Granite City.

"Patients on the floor are interviewed by staff members and a short story is written about each patient. The staff members then choose which mother they feel best represents the same qualities that ECRU tries to deliver: love, understanding, compassion, ship, encouragement and care," Gauen said.

ECRU provides short-term rehabilitative and restorative care for patients between acute hospitalization and an intermediate care facility or home.

"The unit provides rehabilitative services aimed at enabling the patient to regain physical strength and personal independence."

Potential patients include someone who has a total hip or knee replacement, ostomy, mastectomy, or other surgical procedure that requires rehabilitation and/or education.

"Patients benefit from skilled care and rehabilitative services that will help them regain their strength and independence, and from knowledge that SEMC's full medical services are available immediately, if needed."

Space available at Summer High School Institute

Space is still available for the Summer High School Institute to be conducted June 21, 22, 23, and 24 on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Sponsored by the SIUE Kimmel Leadership Center, the theme of this year's Institute is "Prepare for the Future." The four-day schedule will prepare high school students for their future in high school and college, and for their career choices. Students who will be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in fall semester 1994 are eligible to participate in this summer's program.

The Institute's $135 tuition includes registration, housing, meals, transportation, social activities, certificate, and T-shirt. The Institute is limited to 50 participants who will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

A variety of interactive sessions, speakers, and activities will be offered by the Institute, including assessing and developing skills, goal setting, identifying leaders, professional etiquette, group process, and computer programs.

A volunteer project at Beverly Farms in Godfrey will include work with horticultural beds, a petting zoo, and therapeutic horsemanship.

For more information about the SIUE Summer Institute, call the Kimmel Leadership Center, 692-2666.

Clarification

A Granite City man, Richard Pearce, facing three fraud charges, is not an employee of Town and Country Asphalt of St. Louis.

A story in the May 25 Granite City Journal about Pearce allegedly balking five elderly Alton area residents with shoddy asphalt work said Pearce had used a card from the business.

Town and Country owner John McRee said Pearce is not an employee of the company and has never been associated with it.

O'Fallon routs GCHS, wins sectional

By Mike Kelly

The O'Fallon Panthers nailed down their first sectional championship in 19 years Monday by destroying Granite City 11-0 in five innings at the Class AA Kaskaskia College Sectional.

The Panthers (20-6-1) snapped a scoreless tie with a three-run outburst in the third inning. They batted around in the fourth and fifth innings and put the Warriors (26-9) out of their misery. "That's baseball," Granite

City coach Gus Lignoul said. "Some guys you just go out, get whipped and you go home. O'Fallon was the better team today. They were ready to play and they wanted to be sectional champions."

Brian Funk's run-scoring bloop single into short right field opened the floodgates in the third. The ball fell harmlessly in front of a diving Jeff Ridenour, who nearly made a spectacular catch.

"YOU CAN'T QUESTION Jeff's hustle on that play," Lignoul said. "The effort was there, and I'm not saying he should have caught the ball; it was a difficult play. But if he does catch it, it turns the game around."

"Instead, they got a timely hit and they find their confidence at and they find their confidence at and they find their confidence at

Semifinal win sends Granite City to title game

By Mike Kelly

The Granite City Warriors moved one step from state Saturday by defeating Marion 7-5 in the semifinal round of the Class AA Kaskaskia College Sectional.

A six-run explosion in the first three innings paved the way for the Warriors, who improved their record to 26-8 on the season.

"To date, this was our biggest game of the season," said winning pitcher Mark Winfield, who bettered his record to 8-3. "We had to win this game to reach the sectional finals."

The Warriors, who made their last trip to state in 1970 (Granite City North made it to state in 1979), played O'Fallon in Monday's championship game. The Panthers (19-6-1) defeated Belleville West 3-2 in Saturday's second semifinal game.

But Granite City experienced some anxious moments before it nailed down its sectional victory.

The Warriors held a commanding 7-1 lead going into the sixth inning before Winfield ran out of gas. Marion (19-10) roughed him up for three runs.

A TRIPLE BY Tony Edwards, a run-scoring single by Matt Croft and a walk sent Winfield to the showers. Jeff Ridenour came on and surrendered a run on two hits before he settled down and registered his sixth save. "Having someone like Jeff on

Lady Warriors' third trip to state yields fourth

First-round victory takes toll on GCHS kickers in semis

HOFFMAN ESTATES — Reaching the semifinals of the IHSA state tournament Saturday guaranteed the Lady Warrior soccer team at least a fourth-place finish in the state.

But Granite City was left hungry for a little more after dropping two straight games Saturday at Conant High School. The Lady Warriors, who defeated Libertyville on Friday in what was by far the most exciting game of the weekend, had almost no energy left for the semifinals against Naperville Central. The emotional letdown continued into the third-place game, where Granite City lost 3-1 to Palatine.

The challenge of three games in two days seemed to take its toll on the Lady Warriors, who made it into the semifinals for the second time in the past four years. The Lady Warriors also placed fourth in 1991 and were probably expecting a bit more this year in their third appearance at state overall.

"We would have liked to have done better," said coach Gene Baker, who owns nine boys state titles and is still working on his first one as a girls coach. "If you're in the finals, you want to do better."

"We're physically and emotionally spent."

GRANITE CITY FINISHED the season 18-5-2, and its final win was a dandy. The Lady Warriors entered Friday night's quarterfinal game against Libertyville hardly expecting the battle that was awaiting them.

Down 2-1 at halftime, the Lady Warriors regrouped with their season on the line and a trip to the semifinals at stake. With 15:48 to go, Kara Gauzen redirected a pass from Brooke Bjorkman and beat Libertyville goalkeeper Staci Dowdy with a low shot to the left corner of the net to tie the game.

Neither team scored through the rest of regulation or in two 10-minute, sudden-death sessions of overtime. The game went to a round of penalty kicks, and both teams made four of five.

The Lady Warriors and the Wildcats then converted all 10 PK attempts in the second round to set up a confrontation of sudden-death PKs. The ending came sooner than expected. Jill Had-dix took the first sudden-death shot and buried the 10th successful PK in 11 attempts for Granite City.

Goalkeeper Mikla Economy then made a game-ending save against Libertyville All-State Kelly Karl.

Redhawks wear down Granite City kickers in semis

By Tony Panozzo
Staff writer

After going the full distance and surviving Friday night's state tournament opener against Libertyville, the Lady Warrior-soccer team had trouble finding its legs and the net in Saturday's 3-0 semifinal loss to Naperville Central.

The Lady Warriors, who outlasted Libertyville in a game that went to sudden-death penalty kicks Friday night, returned to Conant High School roughly 12 hours later for the state semifinals against Naperville Central. Granite City fell behind 2-0 less than 10 minutes into the game and spent the rest of the contest trying to catch up.

Granite City appeared sluggish and a bit overmatched by the Redhawks, who wore out the Lady Warriors with their greater size and heavier emphasis on physical play. Naperville Central went on to Saturday night's state championship game and placed second after falling 2-1 to St. Charles.

"They're a big, strong team," Granite City coach Gene Baker said. "They play with a lot of heart and enthusiasm. They have a lot of strength and a good power game."

"I'M REAL PROUD of my club. But they're not physically strong enough yet for what's here. We've been banged up."

Granite City's injury list continued to grow at Conant against both Libertyville and Naperville Central. Sophomore fullback Denise McMillan aggravated a knee injury in the second half of Friday's game but came back to play against Naperville Central. Senior midfielder Brooke Bjorkman had to leave Saturday's game late in the second half after spraining her ankle, and junior midfielder Christy Costello was sidelined all night. (See KICKERS, Page 2B)

Granite City grapplers carry on winning tradition under Kirgan

The Granite City Elks Wrestling Club is living up to the same success its predecessor, the Granite City Wrestling Club, has enjoyed. This year under coach Allen Kirgan, the Elks have qualified 12 wrestlers for the Northern Plains Regional Nationals, two wrestlers for the Cadet Nationals and one for the Cadet World team.

Granite City will send a dozen grapplers to the Northern Plains Regional Nationals next week in LaCrosse, Wis. Of the 12, three are returning place winners: George Kirgan, Kevin Venne and Gary Oxford.

Kirgan is a two-time Greco-

Roman champion and has finished sixth and second in freestyle. Venne was a Greco champion last year and also finished fifth in freestyle. Oxford was third in Greco and fifth in freestyle at last year's tournament.

THE THREE WRESTLERS will be joined by John Venne, Nick Campbell, Ben Temple, Larry Meyers, Justin Hale and Adam Dunnivant. Matt Wiesen-Samuels also qualified but will not compete. To qualify, wrestlers need to finish among the state's top four in their respective weight class.

New car paces Schaefer to Tri-City win

By Steve Birmingham
Correspondent

Mark Schaefer unveiled a brand new race car Saturday and used it to dominate the Allied Auto Racing Association Modified main at Tri-City Speedway.

The new mount took Schaefer to his first Clark Oil Racing Series win in two seasons. Built specifically for the flat, half-mile dirt, Schaefer's IROC Camaro went wherever he pointed it. He passed Joe Cooksey for the lead just two laps into the main event and began to stretch his lead when the caution lights blinked on for a frightening crash involving Jeff Masson. Masson slammed the third turn guard rail, hanging his Modified atop the rail. Jeff was able to get out of his damaged racer and walk away.

SCHAEFER SHOOK OFF a determined challenge from Cooksey on the restart and began to put daylight between himself and his pursuers. As Cooksey faded, Tim Ratajczyk began to assert himself and set after the disappearing Schaefer. He didn't have the moxie though, as Schaefer unleashed his newfound power and raced off to a half-lap lead at the checkers. Trailing were Ratajczyk, Don Klein, Tom Seels and Dave Boston.

Cooksey and Ratajczyk won the heats while Cooksey took the Champion Spark Plug Dash.

Gary Haynes won his first ever AARA Street Stock feature, fending off spirited charges from 1993 Rookie-of-the-Year and 1994 points leader Wayne Downing and Bill Clossen. Glen Pollock and Joe Metter rounded out the top five. Dean Pruett and Clossen won the heats while Haynes was victorious in the Champion Spark Plug Dash.

Tommy Scott reeled off his third win in succession, making him Tri-City's first SKOAL Bandit Racing Sprint Car triple winner of 1994.

Starting fifth in the headliner, Scott jumped into the second spot as Butch Nutaut led the field into the first turn. Nutaut

The ending was a far different outcome than games played earlier in the day. St. Charles, Palatine and Naperville Central all won by shutout.

Yet luck ran out for the Lady Warriors on Saturday. They returned to the field less than 12 hours later for the semifinals against Naperville Central and lost 3-0.

The Lady Warriors fell behind by the same score against Palatine in the third-place game, although the contest was not nearly that one-sided. Granite City controlled the field in the second half and scored at 48:42 on a 20-yard blast by Holly Farnsworth.

"It was a much closer game than 3-1," Baker said.

There were other chances, but the Lady Warriors were not the same team they were the day before. Brooke Bjorkman and Christy Costello missed the final game because of injuries, and Denise McMillan, Economy and Farnsworth all played with injuries.

The Lady Warriors were awarded the fourth-place trophy during halftime of the state championship game. St. Charles won the state title and capped off an unbeaten season at 27-0-1.

with a 2-1 win over Naperville Central.

Granite City finished the season playing its best soccer of the year. Before losing to Naperville Central, the Lady Warriors had won seven straight games including a 2-1 victory over archrival Collinsville in the sectional title game May 31.

The Lady Warriors lost eight starters from last year's team, which lost to Downers Grove South in the state quarterfinals. But Granite City made it back to state with a much younger team and won its first-round game.

Several freshmen saw action over the course of the season: starting midfielder Jaime Dellbringe; and Michelle Montgomery, Tara Pominson, Roxie Simpson, Amanda Nizinski and Carrie Simpson.

The Lady Warriors stand to lose seven seniors this season, including Economy, Bjorkman, Haddix and All-State sweeper Kami Kessel. Seniors Lynsey Evans, Denise Dutko and Debbie Dutko will also be missed and will have to be replaced.

"It was a great year," Baker said. "We came a long way with a young team."

"Six freshmen made the trip, and everyone played. We were very happy with that. We'll be back."

day by a calf muscle injury suffered Friday night.

Granite City's fatigue from Friday was obvious in the first half against Naperville Central. The Redhawks scored just 1:28 into the game when Rebecca Rose fired a corner kick and found the net with a high, arcing shot that eluded goalkeeper Mikla Economy.

The Redhawks earned another corner kick shortly after and capitalized again. Rose began the play and sent a shot into the box, where the Lady Warriors nearly cleared the ball. But Naperville Central's Amy Dowdell kept the ball in the zone, settled and entered a crossing pass to Anne Mucci. Mucci headed the ball into the net for a 2-0 lead at 8:48.

The Redhawks continued to dominate the contest until late in the first half. Amy Henson created Granite City's first good scoring chance at 27:27 when she drove to the net and fed Holly Farnsworth in front. But Naperville Central defender Jessica Wichdt poked the ball away before Farnsworth could get off a shot.

The Lady Warriors maintained the pressure for the rest of the half and controlled the field for the majority of the second half. But Naperville Central's two first-half goals proved to be more than enough.

"They really pressed us in the second half," Naperville Central coach Ed Watson said. "They're the type of team that needs to establish their style. We got two goals early and caught them when they couldn't get their style down."

The Redhawks switched to a defensive set in the second half to counter Granite City's attack and added an insurance goal at 71:33. Jessica Smith recorded an unassisted goal to close out the scoring.

The Redhawks outshot the Lady Warriors 12-7. Both teams had two corner kicks.

Baker said the Lady Warriors had a tough time bouncing back from Friday's dramatic victory over Libertyville.

"If we can build seven or eight days for a team, we can be awfully good," Baker said. "If we come right back, we have to adjust."

"This team isn't quite ready for three games in two days yet, but we're still real proud of them."

led for four laps before a spinning J.B. Cross brought out the yellow flag. Nutaut tried the move again on the restart but Scott was parked on his rear end bar. Two turns later Scott went around Nutaut for good, and Tod Bishop charged past Nutaut to grab second. Nutaut finished third, followed by Chuck Schlosser and John Barrick.

Pat Ryan posted his second Budweiser Pro Stock win of the season, besting Rod Bailey, Steve Grotz, John Stanton and Terry James. Granite City's Bailey dominated the main event until a mid-race caution period. He tried to fight off Ryan at the restart but fading brakes forced him to give up the point. The heats were won by Ryan, Tommy Krinkel and Grotz with Bub Smith winning the Champion Spark Plug Dash.

IN AARA SUPER Sportsman action, Rich Steyh won his second main event of the year over last week's winner, Bob Martini, and Shawn Rayfield, 1993 Champion Bobby Bittle and Bub Johnson. The heats went 18-10 Johnson and Bittle. Steyh won the Champion Spark Plug Dash.

Granite City also had two wrestlers qualify for the Cadet Nationals, to be held in Columbia, Mo., July 3-7. Nick Campbell qualified for both Greco and freestyle in the 242-pound weight class. Estrada qualified for Greco at 167.

Even though Estrada has decided not to compete, Campbell may not be alone in Columbia. Allen Kirgan has been selected for the Illinois coaching staff.

"It's a great honor to be selected," Kirgan said. "Usually, those positions are held for the northern coaches. I guess somebody up north must think I'm doing a pretty good job."

Estrada is passing up the Northern Plains and Cadet Nationals to compete in the Cadet World championships, which will be held this month in Frankfort.

"JEFF SHOULD BE very proud," Kirgan said. "Usually, those positions are held for the northern coaches. I guess somebody up north must think I'm doing a pretty good job."

The Elks will hold a Greco and freestyle wrestling tournament this weekend in the Granite City High School gymnasium annex. A short clinic for wrestlers who have never competed in Greco or freestyle will be held before the tournament, scheduled for Friday and Saturday.

The event is sanctioned by USA Wrestling, and all participants must present a valid U.S.A. card. Cards will be available upon registration for $20.

There will be three divisions of competition: 11th-12 grade, including graduating seniors; 9th-10th grade; and 8th-8th grade. Each bracket will have eight wrestlers and blocked weights. Medals will be awarded for first through third place in Greco and freestyle.

The fee for the Greco tournament is $8, and the fee for freestyle is $10. The cost for both is $10. Admission is $3 for adults and $1 for students. Admission is free for coaches with a valid U.S.A. coaches card.

WEIGH-INS WILL be held both days. An optional Greco weigh-in will be held 8-9 p.m. Thursday. Greco weigh-ins will also be held 2-4 p.m. Friday.

Freestyle weigh-ins will be held 7-9 a.m. Saturday.

Wrestlers participating in both styles need to weigh in only once. Freestyle wrestlers need to weigh in Saturday. Greco wrestlers register and weigh in Friday but do not participate must weigh in again Saturday.

A short Greco clinic will be held at 4:30 p.m. Friday. The wrestling will begin at 5 p.m. and will conclude after each division has been decided.

A short freestyle clinic will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. Freestyle wrestling will begin at 10 a.m.

the mound in the late innings is such a bonus," Winfield said. "Going from 68 to 88 miles-per-hour makes it tough on the hitters. I'm a finesse pitcher and Jeff is pure power. He just blows the ball right by people. He's an excellent stopper."

But Winfield held his own until the sixth. The senior lefthander scattered four hits, walked three and struck out seven.

Jason Talley's run-scoring double, Winfield's sacrifice fly and Jason Wood's RBI double gave the Warriors a 3-0 first-inning lead. A throwing error by losing pitcher John Slone and Ridenour's RBI single in the second inning handed Granite City a commanding five-run cushion.

"John just got too many of his pitches up in the early innings," Marion coach Denny Butler said. "And Granite City took advantage of it. They patted the ball all over the field. But I credit our kids for hanging in there."

"WE PLAYED A great ball club and made a game of it late."

The camp will be held under the lights at Memorial Stadium. Registration begins at 6:30 p.m. for the camp, which is free for all children entering third through sixth grade this fall.

Comebacks have been the story of our season, but it's a lot tougher when you're playing someone like Granite City."

Slone, who finished the season at 11-2, finally settled down and limited the Warriors to a run on four hits in the last four innings. He also retired the last nine men he faced in order.

"That's been John's forte all season," Butler said. "He doesn't like to come out of a game. He's been bombed a couple of times this year, but he's always hung in there. He did the same thing today, but we couldn't pull it out."

"We let down a little bit and we made them believe they could win this game," Granite City coach Gus Lignoul said. "This should have been an easy victory, but we made it hard on ourselves. But the main thing is that we won."

Klee earns Eagle badge

Jeffrey Klee, Boy Scout Troop 46, was awarded the Eagle Scout badge at a court of honor held for him recently at Nameoki United Methodist Church.

Klee, the youngest son of John J. and Carol Klee and Gail and J.W. Wyatt, continues a family tradition by attaining the rank of Eagle Scout. His brothers, Adam and David, are both Eagle Scouts.

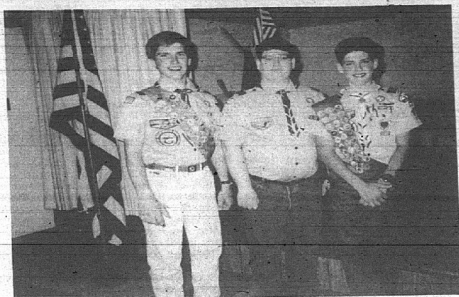

Emcee for the evening was Trails West Council camping co-chairman Bud Charbonnier. The color guard consisted of scouts Brad Graves, Mark Moseley, Brian Moseley and Terry Kreher. Klee's brothers made up the honor guard.

Explaining the Eagle requirements was Tom Luebken, council commissioner. The Eagle badge was presented by Glenn Ashoff, Troop 46 commissioner. Assistant scout masters, Mike Graves, Jack Whitehead and Danny Kreher, assisted in the ceremony with the help of Brad Graves and Terry Kreher.

District executive J.D. Kuchen administered the Scout Oath. The Eagle poem, written by Klee's mother, was read by Pat Foote, Cub master of Post 28. The Rev. Jame Hahc gave the benediction. Special presentations were given by representatives of the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department, the Sons of the American Revolution and the Granite City Optimist Club.

Plaques commemorating the occasion were presented to all three Klee brothers by Troop 46 Scout master, J.W. Wyatt. Handing out programs were Shelly Klee, Amy Martin and Melissa Foote. Helping with the ceremony was Carole Graff, Gloria Rains, Denise West and Donna Schmid.

Jeffrey Klee will be a freshman at Granite City High School in the fall.

Campbell House interesting place to visit

By Jane Cosby
Correspondent

This summer take an in-town vacation with your kids. The St. Louis area has many fascinating places to visit that are even more fun if you know the stories that go with them.

Here is the story of the Campbell House in downtown St. Louis, just a few blocks from Union Station.

Robert Campbell came to the St. Louis area from Ireland in 1823 at the age of 19. Within 13 years, Campbell had made his fortune as a fur trader and returned to St. Louis to live.

Campbell was one of many men in St. Louis who became wealthy by trapping and trading furs. Campbell diversified his fur trading business and went into banking, real estate, dry goods and steamboat shipping. By the middle 1800s he was one of the richest men in Missouri.

The Campbell House, 1508 Locust St., was built around 1851, and the Campbell family moved into the house in 1854. The house was one of several mansions and town homes built for St. Louis' new millionaires who lived on an exclusive private street called Lucas Place.

The Campbell family experienced a heartache quite common in those days — of the 13 children born to the wealthy couple, only three lived to adulthood.

During the time the Campbells lived in the house, some of the most influential people in the United States visited there: President Ulysses S. Grant, Gen. William T. Sherman, Capt. James B.

Eads, Jesuit explorer-missionary Pierre Desmet and mountain men Kit Carson and Jim Bridger.

Campbell's experiences out West and his knowledge and concern for American Indian tribes were evident when he joined Desmet in 1851 to help negotiate a treaty with 10,000 Indians.

After the death of Robert Campbell and his wife, the house became the property of their three sons. The last son lived as a recluse in the house until he died in 1938.

During the early 1900s the area around the house became industrialized, and one by one, all the other grand old mansions were torn down as the wealthy inhabitants moved away.

Since the eccentric Campbell sons rarely got rid of anything, approximately 95 percent of the present furnishings in the house belonged to the Campbells.

Most of the furnishings were purchased in Philadelphia and reflect the high social position and wealth of the Campbell family.

After the death of the last son, the home eventually was turned into a museum. It offers an excellent look at life in the 19th century.

The Campbell House is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, and from noon to 5 p.m. Sunday. Call 421-0825.

Jane Cosby is a former teacher and the mother of two.

Cindy Whitt, president of the Ladies Sodality, reported at the May 24 annual pot luck dinner meeting, attended by 43 ladies, that the Men's Club of the parish had given a ladies appreciation dinner May 7. Good food and fun entertainment were offered.

The St. Elizabeth Ladies Sodality annual $500 scholarship to a graduating senior from St. Elizabeth parish was awarded May 19 to Matt Ruder by Whitt at the Granite City Senior High School awards assembly.

Whitt thanked Frances Bury, Mary Oltendorf, Helen Noth, Olga Johnson, Romana Lofink, Marge Noth and Vivian Byer for serving the food and setting up for the pot luck dinner. Hostesses for the August meeting will be Sylvia Winfield, Nancy Norris, Lorraine Gorman and Gertrude Rutkowski.

ICITC meets

The Illini Club of International Training in Communication met at Ravanelli's Restaurant in Granite City on May 25.

President Robert Franklin presided. The following members were in attendance: Alpha Barnhart, Virginia Fiedler, Ruby Hale, Pat Hillgoss, Brenda Walker, Lardine Wright and Vee Thomas. Guests included Dorothy Landuyt of Godfrey and Melba Wobbe of Collinsville.

An invocation was given and the group said the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the TTC Pledge.

A report of the recent Heartland Region Conference held in Effingham was given by Hillgoss, delegate. It was announced that the international convention for TTC this year will be held in Pittsburgh in July.

Hillgoss, the current club treasurer, was elected the Illini Club Member of the Year. She has worked diligently for the club since she joined in 1990, serving as secretary, treasurer, alternate council delegate, regional conference delegate and chairman of the 1994 speech contest.

Hale was in charge of the issues of the Day and Hillgoss presented educational theory on evaluation.

Fiedler gave a speech entitled "A Memorable Summer." Walker was the program leader and Wright was the general evaluator.

Barnhart was the timer for the meeting and also presented the closing thoughts.

Anyone interested in attending the next meeting to be held at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 22, at Ravanelli's Restaurant, should contact Barnhart, secretary, at 876-9039.

Memorial's
Emergency Department. . .
. . .Here When It Counts

Memorial's Emergency Department is "here when it counts" -
24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Last year, over 39,000 of our friends and neighbors counted on Memorial's skilled emergency professionals when they needed emergency medical care.

Memorial's Emergency Department is ready - when it counts - to meet your needs - whether you need trauma-level emergency care in Memorial's up-to-date Emergency Department - or care for less serious problems in our conveniently available FAST TRACK service.

As this area's largest emergency services provider, Memorial's Emergency Department offers:

- 10 specially-trained emergency physicians from Belleville Emergency Physicians - treating emergencies is their full-time specialty - not just a sideline. And, Memorial schedules more emergency physicians 24 hours a day than other area hospitals.

- 35 experienced registered nurses - all certified in Advanced Cardiac Life Support - most are Trauma Nurse Specialists.
- The area's largest emergency department with 20 trauma treatment areas, six private FAST TRACK rooms, two x-ray rooms, adjacent trauma-level operating rooms, as well as Memorial's full spectrum of modern diagnostic and treatment services.
- The area's original FAST TRACK service for less serious conditions not needing trauma-level care. Our FAST TRACK has a separate physician and nursing staff - 12 hours every day - when your physician may not be available and when you need it.

When you need it, Memorial provides the innovative and convenient emergency care you expect from this area's leader in emergency services.

5th-graders learn of Gen. MacArthur

Students of Nancy Rainer's fifth-grade class at Frohardt School recently found out that the memory and spirit of General Douglas MacArthur are alive and well in Granite City.

As part of Rainer's Reading Emphasis program, Gregg McGee, branch supervisor of the Granite City Public Library District, read the class a chapter of a biography about the famous five-star general. He played a recording of the general's final address to the cadets at the United States Military Academy at West Point and introduced General MacArthur (as portrayed by Steve Conkovich).

The class learned about MacArthur's 38 years of military service and his rallying call of "Duty, Honor, Country." Conkovich appeared in full Army uniform with five-star general's insignia, as well as MacArthur's characteristic sunglasses and corncob pipe.

Steve Conkovich portrays General Douglas MacArthur in Nancy Rainer's fifth-grade class at Frohardt School.

Class of 1979 considering reunion

The officers of the Granite City South High School class of 1979 are considering a 15-year class reunion in late September. The plans are for a casual reunion at a park for the whole family.

Please contact either Becky Lupardus at (314) 439-4667 or Lisa Waltenberger-Maurer at (314) 892-3968 if you are interested or know the address of fellow classmates.

Horoscope

The sun and moon in the same constellation in Gemini make action and perception resonate. It's easy to move forward with flirting, socializing and schmoozing with important players. Take advantage of openness in a relationships this week — getting things off your chest will be harder when Mercury goes retrograde on June 13. Those in sales can sell land on the moon.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Marching to your own beat draws attention from an attractive romantic prospect. An unavoidable confrontation has a rocky twist. Refuse to pay into biological funds. Promotions and travel are highlighted.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Marketing gets top dollar. Anxiety that is linked to a past situation leaves for good. The truth in a lover's words was ignored.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Resolutions are being upheld. Recent studies spur changes in health and exercise regimens. A deficiency is only a perception. Avoid a romantic distraction — one love demands all your excess time and energy.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). A relationship problem is solved naturally. Career trophies lie around the corner. People skills are somewhat lucrative. A partner who lacks artistic vision can make up for it in dependability.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Pinch-hitters gather glory. Let a friend play. Enjoy pet names, small gifts and teasing from one who is infatuated with you. Guidance in finance or psychology is there for the asking. Integrate a debate.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 8). Win this month from off-the-wall gambles. Playing your cards right with a Leo or Sagittarius lands you in a hot-and-heavy affair. Traveling in July solidifies love. Wait until August to invest or start a new business. Family connections are influential in the last weeks of September. In October, hearts know what they need. Your windfall month — May '95 — could inspire marriage.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Information turns into a lucky find. Romantic interests try to impress you by showing kindness to the less fortunate. Set weekend dates now. A friend needs support more than an unbiased opinion. Drop a line or card.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Positive changes are made to a business arrangement. Love waits for an invitation. A brief bout of discouragement at work is counteracted with friendly advice. A group effort succeeds where a solo attempt failed.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). An outward expression of joy makes others jump on the bandwagon. A romance relaxes and learns to communicate. Splurge for better seats at an event. Buy into an idealistic vision. A fellow Scorpio misses you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Asking the right questions of your manager earns you respect. A contingency plan is unnecessary — first runs are tremendously lucky. A bubble-bursting realist is trying to get noticed in a romantic light.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). A past competitor makes a show of good will. An associate is a perfect illustration for a present work situation. Inform a lover as soon as plans change — arguments can be prevented. An associate extends an invitation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Love is more comfortable than mysterious. An employer gives you a wave of generosity. Incorporate your family into a windfall project. Acceptance comes from an academic or intellectual institution.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Royal treatment arrives from long-time associates. The price of freedom must be weighed carefully against the security of a large group. A lenient phase ends — motivation is high. Re-evaluate your opinion of an in-law.

Novelty tunes often hit it big

By Bill Beggs
Correspondent

SONGS YOU CAN'T TAKE SERIOUSLY: A party band known as the B.C. 52s recently dined fake fur to redo "The Flintstones" theme. "Weird Al" Yankovic resurfaces occasionally to do a song parody — ever hear "Jurassic Park," a send-up of "MacArthur Park"? At any rate, some novelty tunes hit it big.

1. Rick Dees & His Cast of Idiots hit No. 1 in the fall of 1976 with what ridiculous song?
2. A former truck driver assumed what gimmicky name to hit No. 8 in the summer of 1956 with a tale of road mayhem, "Transfusion"?
3. What goofy song that hit No. 1 in 1974 was the biggest success for Ray Stevens?
4. Who hit No. 4 in the winter of 1966 with "Snoopy vs. The Red Baron"?

5. What No. 17 song from the summer of 1978 was the only chart entry for comedian Steve Martin & The Toot Uncommons?
6. Who had a smash novelty hit in the summer of 1966 with "They're Coming To Take Me Away—Ha-Haaa!"?
7. Capitalizing on Flip Wilson's success, in the summer of 1968 soul singer Shorty Long hit No. 8 and comedian Pigmeat Markham hit No. 19 with what song?

8. Who capitalized on the CB radio craze with "Convoy," a No. 1 hit in early 1975?
9. What No. 9 hit from the winter of 1976 was the sole chart entry for Larry Groce?

10. Who held down the No. 1 slot for six weeks in the summer of 1938 with "The Purple People Eater"? (Extra credit: What were this artist's other claims to fame?)

ANSWERS:

1. "Duke Duck" (Part 1) ... 2. "Nervous Norvus" ... 3. "The Snake" ... 4. "The Royal Guardsman" ... 5. "A Little Bit" ... 6. "The Purple People Eater" ... 7. "The Purple People Eater" ... 8. "The Purple People Eater" ... 9. "The Purple People Eater" ... 10. "The Purple People Eater" ...

Unit 307 helps Special Olympics

Members from Venice-Madison American Legion Unit 307 assisted the Area 12 Special Olympics. On May 6, lunch bags were filled for the 5,000 participants and volunteers. This was done at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in Collinsville.

The following attended: Dorothy Hinson, Kate Buechele, Pauline Mersinger, Margaret Nunn, Joyce Pittenger, Delores Stalecker, LaVera Johnson, Melba Duncan, Dolores Weiss and Mary Hellingner.

On Saturday, the Special Olympic games were to be held at the Highland High School athletic field in Highland. Rain and very soggy, water-soaked grounds caused the games to be canceled at about 9:30 a.m.

Salon 53 holds chapeau party

Madison County Salon 53 of the Eight and Forty held its chapeau party at the Innkeeper Restaurant in Hamel on May 17.

Luncheon was served to 27 members and guests. Elsie Vieregge, chapeau, served as mistress of ceremonies for the meeting and program.

Mary Silver, departmental chapeau, from Champaign, was a special guest. She was accompanied by her husband, Walter. Mary told of her trip to the National Jewish Center in Denver in April. Members filled 1,500 dittybags with books, pens and toys and took them to the hospitals for new patient use.

The national chapeau's project was to purchase computers for the school classrooms at NJC. Money for nine computers was presented in April. More than $4,000 was donated by the national organization for software to be used on the computers.

Silver reported that 50 camperships at $240 each have been presented to the American Lung Association by the Department of Illinois for asthmatic children to attend Camp Superkids this summer. More than $3,600 has been collected for the nurses scholarship fund for a nurse specializing in children's lung diseases.

The club was honored to have with them Ruth Hitch of Whitehall, Ill., a past departmental chapeau of the Eight and Forty. Hitch was the first recipient of the Eleanor Roosevelt Award for Outstanding Democratic Women in recognition of her dedication and hard work on behalf of the Illinois Democratic Women and the Democratic Party. She is a precinct committeeman and holds several other offices in Greene County.

Other guests present were Virginia Egan, past departmental chapeau; Rose Schwarz and Jean Presson, both of St. Clair County Salon 148; Shirley Hall, past departmental chapeau; and Betty Wilkins, Fern Sass and Alberta Wilson, all from Marion-Clinton Salon 347.

A musical program was presented by Marjorie Rosenthal, Dorothy Hinson, Norma Hillmer, Shirley Landolt and Elsie Vieregge. Games were played following the program.

Those present from this area were Dorothy Hinson, Norma Hillmer, Frances Cowley and Loretta Ziegler.

Tenor William Harness will present a special sacred-music concert at the City Temple Assembly of God in Granite City.

Tenor to sing at church

Pastor Mike Hopkins and the congregation of City Temple Assembly of God, 4751 Maryville Road, Granite City, invite the citizens of the community to a special sacred-music concert with William Harness at 7 p.m. Sunday, June 12.

For years, Harness thrilled audiences from New York to San Francisco with a tenor voice hailed by critics as one of the finest in America.

As a professional singer, he toured the country with some of the brightest musical talent in the world. Now, his talent has been dedicated to singing of Jesus Christ.

Hopkins said all seats are free. An offering will be taken.

Marinades 'marry' with meat flavors for grilling. Combine ½ cup chicken broth, 1 teaspoon shredded lime peel, ¼ cup lime juice, 1 tablespoon oil, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 2 cloves garlic, minced, and 1/8 teaspoon ground red pepper. Toss with 1 pound pork, cut in ½- to 1-inch cubes. Toss or turn often, up to 24 hours.

Health & Fitness

Medicine Chest

When packing bags for travel, take an ample supply of your prescription drugs. Do not pack them in luggage or baggage that will be checked, so medicine is always accessible.

Kids' Cuisine

Kids looking for munchies gain bad habits when high-fat and high-sugar snacks abound. Make an easy mix with popcorn air-popped or in a light variety, bite-size pretzels or high-fiber crackers, chewy dried fruits and nutritious cereal. Keep the crunchy mix airtight so it is ready for the swing set trail.

Big Fat Tip

Milk cut in fat and calories is not deficient in nutrients. An eight-ounce glass of whole milk contains 150 calories, two percent milk 120 calories, one percent milk 102 calories, one-half percent 90 calories and skim milk just 36 calories. Low-fat milks are fortified with vitamins A and D and iron in at least the amounts present in whole milk before fat is reduced. Calcium actually increases slightly as milkfat in milk decreases.

Future Shop

Flour made from dry beans may be just around the vine. A food processor has been developed to convert freshly ground, raw beans into flour to make the most of its protein, fiber and folate. The process now involves soaking, cooking, creating a paste, drying and grinding into powder. The next job is in the kitchen to find how the flour works in morning pancakes and dessert brownies. White bean flour is known to be useful in cream soups and gravies. (Source: Agricultural Research Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture)

Cherries present a colorful, cheery disposition for a sweet summer treat. Nothing matches the sweet seduction of fresh bings and rainiers during their season of plenty. Small tart varieties usually are dried or canned, often in pie filling, that can be used year-round in delicious treats like Power Bars.

CHERRY JUBILEE!

By Janice Denham
Staff writer

Cherries love to show off in warm weather. Due to a burst of it this spring, they are ripening in quantity right now, so you can have this sweet specialty of early summer through June and blast into the Fourth of July with them on the plate and by the bowl.

Don Taticek, local representative for Northwest Cherry Growers, says the crop is average in volume, slightly down from last year's bumper amount. Their quality is up to their beautiful reddish, sweet, plump, juicy, refreshing best.

Bings of several varieties are the month-long favorite of fruit lovers to eat as snack, dessert and salad. Rainiers are the golden, red-tinged specialty of the late season. The cherries are picked by hand, with the very delicate rainiers packed right in the orchard.

"We treat them the same — very gently," Taticek says. "The big consideration is temperature fluctuations. They are given a cold water rinse in 32° water to slow down their metabolism. Their sugar keeps them from freezing until it is closer to 27°."

Tart cherries, 70 percent of which are grown in Michigan, usually end up canned, frozen or dried because they are so perishable when fresh. The world eats most sweet cherries while fresh during their short, ripe season, but some are used in maraschino cherries.

Grab life while it has a bowl of cherries available. This time something delicious is good for you. Each one has just four calories. One cup cherries (about 21) adds up to a minimal 90 calories, 1 gram fat, no sodium and 3 grams dietary fiber, with some vitamin C on the side.

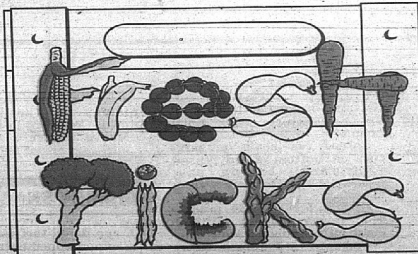

Dark sweet cherries should be plump and shiny. Beware of fruit that may have become warm or handled. To tote sweet bite-size cherries, just rinse and pack gently in a bag or bowl, chilled if possible. To extend the season, rinse and drain cherries thoroughly, pack them in freezer-proof containers or plastic freezer bags, then freeze up to one year.

Use them as ice cubes straight from the freezer. For fruit salad or on cereal, thaw them just 30 minutes at room temperature for their best icy-firm form.

Cherries are becoming a favorite among the produce department's dried fruits. Eight pounds of fresh cherries make just one pound dried fruit. For a spectacular snack, mix them with nuts, cereal and other dried fruit as you would raisins or other less-sweet fruit. To dip in chocolate, choose sweet cherries with stems. Dip into mixture of 1 cup semisweet chocolate chips melted with 1½ teaspoons butter or shortening.

For sweet slush, puree 4 cups halved and pitted cherries with ½ cup sugar and 1 tablespoon lemon

Peaches, plums, nectarines

California peaches, nectarines and plums are now only three to four days out of the orchard. A cold winter, warm spring and little rain during the bloom season has fostered fruit well-sized, juicy and barely off-record in volume.

Peaches and nectarines parade changing varieties throughout the season, so their fleshiness, color and juiciness varies every few weeks. Santa Rosa plums — with gold flesh that turns red when ripe — are just arriving in the market, along with black-ambers, which are jet black on the outside and pale yellow inside.

Micro Raves

By SANDRA HOUNSOM

Be life of the party with bridal shower plan

June glows with the tradition of weddings and bridal showers. Both affairs are fun, but lots of work for a hostess, so today's party plan lets a microwave oven help prepare the food.

For an afternoon shower, light finger food is appropriate.

To make hors d'oeuvres in a snap at the shower, a day ahead combine 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, 1/4 cup crumbled Roquefort cheese, 1/4 cup finely chopped almonds, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, dash of pepper sauce and 1 teaspoon bacon bits. Refrigerate until party time, then spread on crackers laid on paper plates or towels. Warm on high power 45 to 60 seconds until cheese melts.

Fudge, as well as cheesecake, can be made a day ahead for dessert. For fudge, mix 1 pound confectioner's sugar with 1/2 cup cocoa in a large bowl. Pour in 1/4 cup milk. Place 1 stick (1/2 cup) butter or margarine on top of mixture. Microwave on high power 2 to 2 1/2 minutes until butter is melted. Stir well. Stir in 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1/2 cup nuts, if desired. Pour into buttered pan. Freeze 20 minutes or refrigerate 1 hour before cutting. Store in refrigerator.

Using 1 vanilla wafer cookie as a crust, individual cheesecakes can be made in cupcake papers instead of a pie pan.

7 minutes until very hot, stirring well every 2 minutes. Divide between prepared cups. Microwave at medium power 7 to 12 minutes until almost set in center, rotating one-fourth turn every 3 minutes.

Mixture firms up as it chills. Cool, then refrigerate at least 8 hours or overnight. Serve with one of these toppings.

Sour Cream Topping: Cool cheesecakes 20 to 30 minutes, then spread 1 cup dairy sour cream on tops.

Fresh Fruit Topping: After chilling, top cheesecakes with 1 to 2 cups fresh strawberries, raspberries, blueberries or sliced peaches.

Cherry Topping: Before chilling, spread 1 cup cherry pie filling over cheesecakes.

Glaze Topping: Combine 1/2 cup apricot, raspberry or other flavor preserves with 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Drizzle over cheesecakes before chilling.

Ever-popular cheeseburger agenda wins by a landslide

The ever-popular cheeseburger, a long-time American favorite, has received official status from Washington, D.C.

President Bill Clinton is known to have chosen chili cheeseburger as a youthful favorite.

In Little Rock, Ark., a known burger joint is Doe's Eat Place, a red-checked-tablecloth cafe within walking distance of the Arkansas state capitol. Doe's trademark burgers are topped with jalapeno cheese. A typical order at Doe's is "hot" cheeseburger with everything — lettuce, tomato, pickles, onion, mayonnaise, and of course, the hot cheese.

From Minneapolis to Little Rock and L.A. to D.C., great-tasting burgers are on the grill. To create a cheeseburger er worthy of pauper or president, don't be conservative. Take advantage of the growing variety of delicious cheese offerings.

CHEESEBURGERS ON THE HOUSE

The Deli Cabinet: Select cheeses sliced to order at the deli. Request a variety to match favored flavors — smoky sharp cheddar to hot pepper cheese. For one-stop shopping, pick up other burger condiments, such as roasted vegetables or coleslaw, at the deli counter.

What's Your Vote?: Cheddar and mozzarella win by majority in most supermarket cheese cases, but look for other exciting choices like garden of eden jack, garlic cheese, Swiss, 'n' rye and cheese 'n' salami. Smoked provolone is a natural for grilled burgers. A beef patty topped with colby-jack and grilled tomato on sourdough bread spread with basil-flavored mayo wins votes of approval.

The Burger Mandate: Cheese-filled burgers surprise the "house." Use two hamburger patties, each about 1/4 inch thick. Place shredded cheddar or crumbled blue cheese in the center of one patty and top with the other. Gently press edges together to seal. Cook burger to medium doneness.

Made in the U.S.A.: Spreadable cheeses — usually cream cheese, processed cheese or neufchatel combined with vegetables, herbs and/or spices — earn "wide spread" popularity. Try a beef patty with a sharp cheddar spread on a whole wheat bun, piled high with sauteed onion. Use a flour tortilla, shredded lettuce, tomato and nacho-flavored cheese spread to make a taco burger.

Declaration of Independence: Skip the meat and use cheese spread combos — like chives and onion, garden vegetables, and garlic and spices. For gourmet duos, combine cream cheese with sun-dried tomatoes and smoked mozzarella; garlic, herbs and cheddar.

Good Health

By KAREN COLLINS

Fresh, healthy garden vegetables deserve kitchen TLC

As nutritious foods go, vegetables rank at the top. They are generally good sources of fiber and vitamins such as A, C and the B complex. Many provide iron, magnesium and potassium. Most are virtually fat-free. Still, the way vegetables are selected and stored makes an important difference in the amount of nutrition they actually deliver.

The longer vegetables are exposed to air, heat and water, the more nutrients they lose. For the most nutritious and the best taste, the best bet is to eat vegetables raw or lightly steamed the same day purchased or picked.

Freshly picked produce from a farmer's market or roadside stand is generally superior to vegetables shipped to a supermarket. Here are guidelines for selecting and storing some favorites.

Broccoli: Stalks should be tender and firm, not woody. Flower buds should be closed tightly and dark green. Refrigerate in a plastic bag to store. Use soon after purchase.

Cucumbers: The darker the color, the better. Slim medium and small cucumbers are preferable to big fat ones. Avoid any that are puffy, soft, withered or shriveled. Cucumbers keep a week in a refrigerator.

Green or wax beans: Identifiably tender when snapped in half. If they don't snap, don't buy them. Beans should be colorful. Avoid those that look or feel coarse and dried out or are discolored. Refrigerate after purchase.

Peppers: Available in many shapes and colors, firm, smooth, bright and colorful ones should be selected. Don't accept soft, withered, spotted or cracked peppers. Peppers require refrigeration and should be used within a week.

Tomatoes: Nothing is comparable to vine-ripened tomatoes of a garden or produce stand, which usually come into the local market around July 1. Southern-grown tomatoes are available through June. Choose those with deep color, firm texture and no blemishes. Tomatoes ripen at room temperature and should be refrigerated only if room temperature exceeds 75°.

Corn: Husks should be green, kernels should be firm. If the husk is brown or discolored or if kernels have dimples, the corn is old, so it will be tough and dry.

Corn should be refrigerated or eaten immediately after purchase. It keeps best when bought in the husk.

For a free produce-handling chart, write to: American Institute for Cancer Research, Department HU, Washington, D.C. 20069. Beans are steamed in Basil Green Beans to maintain fresh flavor, crisp texture, bright color and high nutrition.

minced, or 1 tsp. dried basil
1 tsp. garlic powder
Pinch pepper
In steamer basket in large pot, bring 1 quart water to boil. Steam beans, covered, 10 to 12 minutes until tender but still firm.

In large skillet, melt margarine over medium-high heat.

Sauté onion until tender and translucent. Add basil, garlic powder and pepper.

Stir 1 minute.
Toss beans with basil sauce until coated evenly. Serve.

Soulard Market gathers free food information

Like in the days of its historic past, Soulard Market will be the gathering site for a variety of food information this summer.

On most Saturdays, free seminars will be held from 11 a.m. to noon at the Market Pavilion, on the Lafayette side of the market, 7340 Carroll Street, St. Louis. Experts will come from University of Missouri Extension Service, St. Louis Health Department, St. Louis Community College and other sources.

They will survey foods — particularly raw and freshly prepared produce — in their role as delicious and nutritious food choices.

Here is the schedule:

June 11: Food preservation techniques — freezing.

June 18: Getting the most nutrition from your food dollar.

June 25: Facts and fallacies about nutrition.

July 9: Cooking delicious meatless meals.

July 16: Soulard Bastille Days Cook-Off.

July 23: Food preservation techniques — canning.

July 30: Interpreting the new food labels.

Aug. 6: Food preservation techniques — dehydrating.

For further information, call 622-4180.

Support Groups

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

4500 Memorial Drive
Belleville, Illinois 62223
(618) 233-7750

Support groups have been in existence for many years. They can become a vital and positive influence in the lives of both patients and those who care about them. By providing information about their disease and how to live with it, support group members can create a better working partnership between patient and physician.

Memorial believes that support groups provide an opportunity for patients, along with their families and friends to discuss uncertainties and learn to place them in perspective. Better than any other technique, talking in a support group with people who share common problems, helps them understand that they are not alone.

The following is information about Memorial-sponsored support groups. For more information about these groups, call the Community Relations Department at 233-7750, extension 5649.

DIABETES

A mutual support group comprised of people with diabetes, their families and people who have had their lives affected by diabetes. Meetings are held on the fourth Monday of every month from 9 to 11 a.m. in the hospital auditorium.

FIBROMYALGIA SYNDROME

This support group is for people with fibromyalgia syndrome (FMS) and their families. FMS is considered to be a widespread musculoskeletal pain and fatigue disorder for which the cause is still unknown. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of every month from 7 to 9 p.m. in the hospital auditorium.

HOPE

Hospital Oncology Patient and Family Education was formed to assist cancer patients, former cancer patients and people who have their lives affected by cancer. The HOPE group meets the last Thursday of each month at 1 p.m. in the auditorium.

ARTHRITIS AND JOINT REPLACEMENT

This group is for people who have arthritic conditions, as well as for those who have experienced or who are anticipating joint replacement surgery. Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of every month (except June - September) from 7 to 9 p.m. in the auditorium.

LUPUS

This support group is affiliated with the Illinois and Missouri Chapters of the Lupus Foundation of America. Meetings are held offering information and insight for coping with lupus on the third Tuesday of each month (except June - September) at 7:30 p.m. in the hospital auditorium.

MENDED HEARTS, INC.

Mended Hearts is a volunteer organization consisting of people who have heart disease, their families, medical professionals and other interested people. Additionally, Mended Hearts members form a support group for one another, contributing emotional backing to recovering patients and their families. For more information, call Memorial's Social Service Department at 233-7750, extension 5420.

METRO EAST HEAD TRAUMA

This group is for people who are moving ahead with their lives after experiencing brain injury due to trauma, surgery or disease. Family and friends are welcome to participate. Meetings are held in Memorial's Occupational Therapy Department. Call 233-7750, extension 5258 for specific meeting dates and times.

NU-VOICE

Conducted in cooperation with the American Cancer Society, the Nu-Voice Club is for laryngotomies - people who have had their voice boxes (larynxes) removed. Family members and friends are encouraged to attend. For more information about meeting dates and times, call the Speech Pathology Department at 233-7750, extension 5255.

PROSTATE CANCER

A mutual support group for people with prostate cancer, their families and people who have had their lives affected by prostate cancer. Meetings are held on the third Monday of every other month from 7 to 9 p.m. in the auditorium.

PULMONARY REHABILITATION

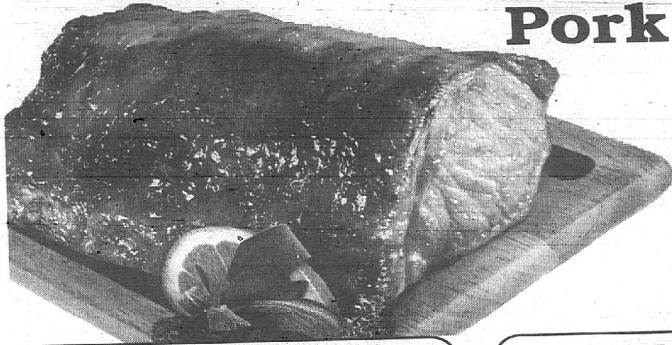

A group for people with diseases of the lung and their families. Individuals with chronic lung disease and their families learn about the disease, as well as share ideas and solutions to their problems. Meetings are held on the last Wednesday of the month at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Worker-notification law ineffective, economists say

By Roger McGrath
Correspondent

The Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, the 1988 law that requires employers to give 60 days' notice of plant closings and mass layoffs, is ineffective, two economists from the University of South Carolina say.

"Oddly enough, the legislation might have done nothing more than mandate that which was already existing practice," professors John Addison and McKinley Blackburn wrote in a recent edition of "The Journal of Economic Perspectives," an academic journal.

The economists' findings are based on the Displaced Worker Survey, a biennial survey of those who lost jobs because of plant closings or major layoffs. While the law's intent was to minimize the length of time displaced workers were jobless, the opposite has occurred, Addison and McKinley say.

Of those displaced workers receiving at least two months' notice, half were unemployed more than 10.7 weeks. Of workers who weren't notified of layoffs in advance, half were jobless more than 8.4 weeks.

One group did benefit from 60-day notifications: Male white-collar workers were unemployed an average of only 5.8 weeks.

The (intended) substantial increase in formal notice desired by supporters of the legislation, and feared by opponents, has not materialized.

— Economists

The Displaced Worker Survey revealed that WARN, as the notification law is known, has been beneficial in one respect: Nearly 20 percent of those receiving advance notice of 60 days find work before the layoffs are made, Addison and Blackburn say.

On the negative side, colleagues who didn't find jobs before the layoffs occurred faced a median length of unemployment of 16.5 weeks. That means half were unemployed less than 16.5 weeks, and half were idle for more than that period.

Another notch in WARN's belt is the success of those notified of layoffs in finding better-paying jobs. With two months' notice, workers found jobs paying 10 percent to 13 percent more, the economists say.

They expressed surprise at the level of employer compliance with WARN. "Surprisingly to us... lengthy formal notice did not increase after implementation of the legislation," Addison and Blackburn say. Before WARN was passed, 47.5 percent of workers weren't told of impending layoffs. After the bill became law, 51.4 percent weren't notified.

"The (intended) substantial increase in formal notice desired by supporters of the legislation, and feared by opponents, has not materialized," Addison and Blackburn say.

They point to several possible reasons for the law's failure, including a lengthy list of exemptions, exceptions and exclusions. Among them: Small businesses are exempt from the law's provisions, as are layoffs involving fewer than 50 workers. "A final possibility — and in our view, the most likely — is that usual employer behavior leaves most (large layoffs) uncovered by the act," Addison and Blackburn say.

A study by the General Accounting Office, Congress' investigating arm, backs that position. After examining 650 layoffs purportedly covered by WARN, GAO discovered that 64 percent, because of the law's exemptions, didn't require any notice.

Ladies Coterie hold meeting

The Ladies Coterie met at Charlie's Restaurant May 19. Following the blessing given by Rev. Helen Stumpe, lunch was served to members and their guests.

Guylla Stuart, president, conducted the meeting and the initiation of new members, Barbara Landis, Betty Schmiedake and Stumpe.

Stuart expressed appreciation to the officers and members for their support during her term in office. She was then presented with her past president's pin and thanked for her service. Virginia John conducted the installation of new officers. Church Women United meet

The monthly meeting of the Church Women United met at Central Christian Church. Helen Stumpe, president, opened the meeting. Nona Corliss gave the devotion for the day.

There was a blood drive at St. John's Church on June 7, sponsored by the group. Annabelle Patton, chairperson for the layette, announced 12 layettes were given in May and for June. Also, one for the Phoenix Crisis Center.

Corollous, legislative chairperson, asked members to write to the representatives and senators and ask them to approve the funding for the wick program. This is a federal program to help women and infants receive milk and food. She said there are 12 million American children that know hunger in the United States.

It was announced that the women at Dwight Correctional Center are reading bedtime stories on tape, so their children can listen to them at home. Eva Clemons told about her visit to the center. The women in the state of Illinois helped raise money to build a chapel there. It is now open and being used.

Twelve crosses have been added to the building representing the 12 Apostles. The inmates are planning their first crop walk to help the hungry.

The president announced May fellowship was a huge success. There will be a bible study for the members led by Dorothy Luckert in the Fall. She also said she hopes a retreat can be planned for a weekend to accommodate the working women so they may discover the programs of CWU in the Quad-City area.

Annabelle Patton was the hostess. The 11 members present were Helen Stumpe, Eva Clemons, Helen Todroff, Burkline Holter, Ruth Lick, Nona Corliss, Louise Anderson, Dorothy Luckert, Dody Edwards and Lena Seitzer. The group represented seven churches in the area.

The next meeting will be at 10 a.m. June 23 at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road. All church women are invited to attend.
